Frequently Asked Questions

What templates are available?

Landing pages, ad creatives, brand packages, marketing calendars, and more. Each template is automatically filled with your specific idea's research context, target audience, and competitive insights.

Which AI tools work with these prompts?

The prompts work with any AI tool - Cursor, Bolt, Lovable, Claude, ChatGPT, and more. Just copy the prompt and paste it into your preferred AI building tool.

How is the research context included?

Each prompt automatically includes your idea's market research, target audience analysis, key features, competitive advantages, and other relevant context so the AI understands exactly what to build.

Can I create custom prompts with research context?

Yes! Beyond the pre-built templates, you can create completely custom prompts that automatically pull in all the research context for any idea. This lets you build exactly what you need while still getting the full market research, audience insights, and competitive analysis included in your prompt.

Can I modify the prompts?

Absolutely. The prompts are starting points with full context included. You can edit them, add specific requirements, or combine multiple templates as needed.
